

Virginia and Carolina to Number Players Thanksgiving

GENERALS READY FOR FINAL BATTLE

No Chances Being Taken by Coaches of Washington and Lee's Eleven.

Lexington, Va., November 19.—The Washington and Lee football team reached Lexington from Charlottesville, Va., Sunday morning. The men reported on Wilson Field Monday afternoon and went through a light drill, but no scrimmage was in order. The game was again in order, the Varsity team being the only one to play. The game was a hard-fought one, the Varsity team being the only one to play. The game was a hard-fought one, the Varsity team being the only one to play.

BENDER'S BROTHER ON HAMPTON TEAM

Colored Eleventh Gather for Hard Battle Saturday Afternoon. In Good Condition.

Attributing the defeat at the hands of the Hampton team to a poor game plan, the Virginia Union football team has decided to play a hard-fought game with Hampton on Saturday afternoon. The game is expected to be a hard-fought one, the Varsity team being the only one to play.

TRACK ATHLETICS NEXT ON SLATE

West Raleigh, N. C., November 19.—On Saturday afternoon the Agricultural and Mechanical track team will hold a general class field day at the State Fair Grounds. This will be the first event of this kind held by the Red and White in several years, and is held with the view of stimulating interest in track work. In the past this branch of the sport has been more or less neglected at Agricultural and Mechanical, but this year there is much more interest being taken in track work than ever before, and the prospects are very bright for a fast team this year.

IN THE WAKE OF THE GAME

By Guy Malbert.

Announcement that the University of North Carolina and Virginia have agreed to number the players in the annual Thanksgiving game has been received with genuine pleasure by local enthusiasts. For years the people of Richmond have looked to this game, more because of its tradition than because of interest in the outcome. For years the stock work has gone forth that Carolina had something in reserve for Virginia, and believing this, the people have poured out forth to witness the annual slaughter.

This year it really appears that the game is to be a real event, and that the people will be given a real game, and not a mere exhibition. The game is expected to be a hard-fought one, the Varsity team being the only one to play.

Governor Tener has been offered and accepted the presidency of the National League of Football. The game is expected to be a hard-fought one, the Varsity team being the only one to play.

Wilbert Robinson is to lead the Redskins next season in place of Jake Dunbar. The game is expected to be a hard-fought one, the Varsity team being the only one to play.

A meeting of the Richmond Soccer football club will be held to-night in the City Hall. The game is expected to be a hard-fought one, the Varsity team being the only one to play.

Checker players of Richmond are being challenged by Petersburg players for a game with a young crowd in the city. The game is expected to be a hard-fought one, the Varsity team being the only one to play.

SOGGY FIELD MARS CADETS' PRACTICE

Youell May Be Out of Game With Roanoke College on Saturday.

Lexington, Va., November 19.—Sharp signal practice has marked the work of the V. M. I. football team for the early days of the week. A wet, soggy field has made scrimmage a dangerous experiment, so that aside from the usual Wednesday clash between Varsity and the Cadets, it is doubtful if an actual workout will be tried during the week.

McEwan, Hobbs and Wynne Rest, but Others Are Driven Hard.

Some of the Army regulars were given a rest to-day, notably McEwan, Hobbs and Wynne, but the rest of the squad was given one of the most strenuous workouts of the year. Head Coach Daily drove them through a long session, which lasted until dark.

The work to-day was all in secret, and the new formations which will be tried against Springfield on Saturday and later on the Navy, were rehearsed. The men looked good in the preliminary signal drill, except for the forward pass feature, which was last night to-day to call forth some caustic remarks from Daily.

The country club handicap, the first stepchase of the meeting was won by Melos, an outsider. The game is expected to be a hard-fought one, the Varsity team being the only one to play.

HEUBI FINISHES IN SIXTH PLACE

Virginia Wins Cross-Country Run, but Local Lad Furnishes Sensation.

Charlottesville, Va., November 19.—Washington and Lee, Richmond College and the University of Virginia were competitors in a cross-country meet, held here this afternoon, under auspices of the general athletic association of the university. The event was won by H. J. Norris, of Virginia, who covered the course of about four and one-half miles in 26 minutes, 13 2-5 seconds. Ellis N. Tucker, also of Virginia, was second; J. B. Johnson, of Washington and Lee, third, and Rumbough, of Virginia, fourth.

FAVORITES LAND MOST OF RACES

Norfolk, Va., November 19.—Seven races on to-day's card at the James River track drew a large crowd. The weather was good and the going was to the liking of most of the favorites, although two of them made poor showings.

The country club handicap, the first stepchase of the meeting was won by Melos, an outsider. The game is expected to be a hard-fought one, the Varsity team being the only one to play.

AGGIES RETURN TO OLD-TIME FORM

Cripples Getting Well, and Coaches Pleased With Showing of Varsity Men.

West Raleigh, N. C., November 19.—After a week of light practice, the Agricultural and Mechanical football team has started a week of hard work. Every effort is being made to get the team back in the best of condition for the Thanksgiving game with Washington and Lee, and the coaches are very much pleased with the prospects. Tenney and Sullivan are both out again, and seem to be rounding into the best of condition. Riddick is getting so good as before he sprained his ankle, and will no doubt be just as good as ever by Thanksgiving. McEwan, who had his shoulder injured several weeks ago, is back at left end again.

ORANGE AND BLUE GETS HARD DRILL

Warren Drives Virginia Eleven at Full Tilt—Confident of Victory.

Charlottesville, Va., November 19.—Evidently of the belief that the men need a pile of work in order to get them in trim for the annual battle with North Carolina on Thanksgiving Day, Head Coach Warren sent the Virginia eleven through the longest practice of the season to-day. The players reported completely "baked," and were kept on the field until it was too dark to see the ball.

Following a long signal drill, the forwards worked on the charging machine. Then came a lively scrimmage with the scrubs which lasted for half an hour. The regulars showed up exceedingly well on the offensive, scoring four touchdowns, while the scrubs were unable to make a single first down.

The coaches believe that the eleven can be materially strengthened by a few more games of this kind. The problem now is to develop a coherent team unit, and give to the players, many of new players and to drill them, many in fact, in the college at large has implicit faith in the team, and the eleven will receive royal support at Richmond.

Sophomores Win Game. The sophomore team in a game of basketball played in the gym at the High School by the score of 27 to 11. The game was a hotly contested one, even though the score was one-sided. Several of the sophs showed up well.

A large number of the High School students were out to see the match.

Maisel Is Married. Buffalo, N. Y., November 19.—Fredrick C. Maisel, third baseman of the New York American League baseball team, and Miss Christine Hoert of Baltimore, to-day obtained a license to marry. Immediately afterwards, the couple went to the City Court Building, where the marriage was performed by Judge Noonan. They were accompanied by Mickey Conoran, third baseman of the Baltimore team.

To marriage license. Riley, Maisel gave his age as twenty-three years, and said his home is in Baltimore. Maisel's wife is the daughter of John L. and Marie E. Hoert, a prominent Baltimore family.

Academy Loses Hard-Fought Contest in Last Game of Prep League Series.

The Prep School League was brought to an end yesterday afternoon at Broad Street Park, when the John Marshall High School defeated Richmond Academy by the score of 8 to 7. The game was a thrilling and hard-fought one from start to finish. Both eleven were in the best of condition, and fought hard, but the High School got a safety in the second quarter, which won the game. The home boys were about even, and the playing of the two backfields were great.

WILL NUMBER ALL PLAYERS IN CAROLINA-VIRGINIA GAME THANKSGIVING DAY

All of the players in the annual football clash between the University of Virginia and the University of North Carolina here on Thanksgiving Day will be numbered. The University of Virginia readily agreed to the plan, and last night Governor L. P. McLeander, of the University of North Carolina, announced that his team would follow the numbering demand. Numbering the players will prove not only an innovation to the South, but will be greatly appreciated by the public. Heretofore, especially under the more open style of play adopted by the colleges, with substitutions made in any number of places, the fans have been unable to accurately tell anything about the players, while the players, on the other hand, have been forced to guess what it's all about. A program will be issued and the program will contain the names of the players, with their names. Thus an observer of the game can tell at a glance just what man is carrying the ball and who scores the points.

Yale Completes Final Work-Out. Coaches Curtail Usual Day's Work. All Ready for Game With Harvard Saturday—Subs Break Training.

New Haven, Conn., November 19.—With a ringing undergraduate demonstration and the picturesque ceremony of burning of old uniforms and the incidental Omega Lambda Chi dance, the Yale football players to-day closed their practice for the season, and visited Yale Field for the last time. Fifteen hundred undergraduates gathered on historic Yale Field to give the team its parting ovation. Following the cheering, the cheering section got in its work, and as the putting practice closed the work for the season at Yale Field, the substitutes tore off pieces of their old uniforms, handkerchiefs, and in other ways expressed their regret at the closing of the season.

The coaches believe that the eleven can be materially strengthened by a few more games of this kind. The problem now is to develop a coherent team unit, and give to the players, many of new players and to drill them, many in fact, in the college at large has implicit faith in the team, and the eleven will receive royal support at Richmond.

COACHES CURTAIL USUAL DAY'S WORK

Carolina's Varsity Shows Marvelous Form Against Scrubs. Coaches Arriving.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Chapel Hill, N. C., November 19.—So commendable was the work of the individual players of Carolina's first eleven in scrimmage this afternoon that the coaches curtailed their allotted hour of skirmish with the scrubs, and with words of good cheer retired them from the line-up, sending in substitutes in their stead. The exhibition of Taylor, at left half, Reynolds, at right half, and Fuller, at right half, received favorable comment from the few scattering spectators that were privileged to take a peep at the football warriors in selected quarters far from the surveillance of the student body and the outside world.

TERRIFIC PACE SET FOR MIDDIES

Annapolis, Md., November 19.—Fast work continued during the practice of the Naval Academy team this afternoon. After some preliminary work, in which special attention was given to kicking, passing and signal practice, there was spirited line-up against the scrubs. The coaches drove the team at the fastest possible clip, the players being changed at the first indication of slowing down. Leonard, who has been on the sick list, has entirely recovered, and was in the line-up for a larger part of the afternoon.

Nicholls and Mitchell were both at quarter, and other men used in the backfield were McReary, Felling Harrison, Blodgett, Miles and Alexander.

Benedictine to Organize. An effort is being made by the Benedictine College students to organize an intercollegiate basketball club, which will play games with other school teams in and about Richmond.

P. H. Seagle, of Raleigh, guard on the team of 1904-05, and Ishabod Garrett, of South Carolina, a tackle on the eleven several years ago, were among the new recruits to the number of the team. One of the touchdowns credited the varsity was accomplished by a well executed forward pass, the other was made through the over-checked line plunging of the first team.

Albert Cox, of Raleigh, who played on the team of 1902 and 1903, after observing the workout of the squad for two days made the comment that this team surpasses any that has represented Carolina within the past four or five years.
